Dust and Ashes Matthew Huss

Norman Linz turned his back on God after the sudden loss of his wife. He settled into an ordinary but isolated life. Until the visions began. Now every night he sees omens and portents. He dreams of fire and death.

Norman wrestles with his faith and begins a desperate journey. Can he learn to look outside himself in search of his redemption? Will another betrayal cause him to lose what little he has left? And why has he been chosen for this gift of revelation? His answers lie in the passage he sees burning in his dreams:

"Shall not the judge of all the earth do right?"
