Winning Revolutions [3 volumes]: The Psychosocial Dynamics of Revolts for Freedom, Fairness, and Rights (Psychology, Religion, and Spirituality)

The product of 35 senior scholars' research, these volumes examine the psychology driving the religious, political, and economic forces that cause turbulence and violence in human society.

- Comprehensively analyzes the entire range of economic, political, and religious factors in social revolts
- Brings to bear evidence from ancient archaeology, up-to-date psychological models, thoroughgoing sociological analysis, and objective historical reporting
- Provides unprecedented coverage of the relevant issues in Greco-Roman, Jewish, Christian, and Muslim religious dynamics that cause immense sociocultural turbulence and watershed world change
- Presents a proposed unified theory of revolution throughout the work while also distinguishing and identifying individual religious, political, and economic forces and outcomes
