STRANGE INHERITANCE Serena Fairfax

Little does Gemma know that the identity of the attractive mystery man who saved her and her motorbike from near disaster in a raging storm will only be revealed in very different circumstances after her desperate dash to her critically ill uncle's bedside.

Her ordered existence is dramatically changed when she finds herself in constant conflict with the enigmatic Stefan who, as trustee, is to play such an important part in her life.

Affairs of the heart prove much less simple to manage than her exciting new business venture, and the attentions of Barney, an ambitious investment advisor, are an added complication.

The glorious Northumbrian border countryside provides the setting for the unexpected events which lead to her ultimate happiness.
