[Siren Classic: Erotic Contemporary Romance, HEA] Seared by a bigamous love cheat, designer Deborah Tremaine backs off sex. But when wealthy Serbian Zoran Pavlovi, who wants to demolish an old London cinema she's campaigning to save, crosses her path she's up for a fling. Zoran has clawed his way out of Serbia's turbulent past but believes his background means he won't find happiness simply because he can't trust a woman to cherish him for who he is-a Serb. But he's a hot-blooded Slav up for no-strings sex and Deborah sends him into overdrive. Deborah's finances are in meltdown when a customer goes bust. Zoran dangles a business deal based in Belgrade that she can't refuse. She's confident the job won't compromise the campaign and decides that Zoran is the guy who can jump-start her love life. They embark on a sizzling affair, but tension, erotically sexual and work related, skyrockets. Incidents trigger the revelation of their personal demons. Can they escape the black holes?  A Siren Erotic Romance
