There is a new online game that Jay and his friend Broody are dying to play, but it's really violent so there's no way Jay's mum will let him buy this game. Boys try to find a way to play without having to buy the game.

Jay told his mother a lie, when he goes home to Broody's house to try to download the game; he said he is going to help his friend with homework instead.

Let's just hope that the truth will not come out!
