If I Had Known Dianna Bell

Jeffery had spent an entire evening torturing himself watching the Dom, the one man he has loved for the over a year play with another submissive. He fell head over heels in love with the mountain of a man the first time he laid eyes on him. But for whatever the reason, the man always passed him over in favor for the other subs in the club and it hurt him to his very core.

So after being passed over yet again by Master Remy, Jeffery decided to drown his pain with shot after shot of Tequila. Little did he know that the Dominant man was watching even though he was in the middle of a scene, and when Jeffery made the reckless decision to drive home in his inebriated state. The Dominant, who had literally dropped everything, was right behind him, concerned for the boy's safety. Read and see what happens in this sexually charged short story.
