This is the first edition of the Nazi discs of WW2 the information has come from many different sources and newspaper accounts as well as extensive research by the Author. This is the simple, mostly factual and well substantiated version supplying mainly detailed information as it arose. There is clearly some supposition involved but the author is convinced that the basic fact of the Nazi Wunderwaffen is well documented and has great documentation. It is clear that in many fields they were exceptionally advanced. It is also clear that they were considerably overstretched and that by the end of the war there were many conflicting interests on the Nazi side. Many of the more intelligent commanders reali
