Not illustrated. 1898 Excerpt: ... also engaged in the real-estate business. His reputation as a business man is one of the best, and he holds the confidence and esteem of all with whom he comes in contact. The marriage of Mr. Williams and Miss Emma Rupp took place October 9, 1860, and they have been blessed with five children. The sons are Harry, John A. and Edward W., the first two being farmers and the latter a student in Wittenberg College. All are strong Republicans. JAMES D. ELLISON. The Republican party in Ohio has an earnest and hard-working supporter in the person of James D. Ellison, who, as president of the Columbus State Journal Company, has been enabled to exert considerable influence in its favor through the medium of the Journal's columns. Mr. Ellison's active participation in the field of politics dates from 1891, when he was appointed a member of the board of public improvements, which constitutes the only official position he has ever held. From the time he was first entitled to vote he has been an ardent adherent of Republican principles, which he has always considered to stand for all that is conducive to the prosperity of the country and the welfare of the people. The State Journal is one of the largest and most popular newspapers in Ohio, its circulation extending to every part of the state, and is conducted on the highest principles of integrity and honor. Mr. Ellison is one of the founders of the Lincoln Club, was its first vice-president, and at present is one of the directors. Born in Stark county, Ohio, Mr. Ellison's elementary education was received in the public schools of Alliance, making that city his home until 1866, when he went to Pittsburg in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, remaining there until 1871 and then going to Indianapolis, Indiana...
