Black Lion's Bride (Warrior Trilogy Book 2) Lara Adrian

She was a dangerous beauty, the enemy he couldn't resist . . .

Daughter of the King of the Assassins, Zahirah was trained to be as deadly as she is beautiful. When she steals into the desert camp of the English army, she has one goal: to banish the crusaders from her homeland by murdering King Richard the Lionheart. Her deceptive strategy delivers her into the hands of the enemy-- and puts her at the mercy of the dashing Black Lion, Sebastian of Montborne.

Fighting for peace in a dangerous, exotic land, Sebastian never dreamed that the tides of war would bring him a mysterious beauty in need of his protection. Nor could he guess that the lady who ignites his heart is the very enemy he has sworn to destroy on behalf of his king. Caught in a deadly game of passion and deception, their unbidden love could cost Sebastian and Zahirah their lives. . . .

* Romantic Times Reviewers Choice Award Nominee for Best Historical Romantic Adventure of the Year

* Romantic Times Magazine K.I.S.S. Hero for Sebastian of Montborne

* Reviewers International Organization's Dorothy Parker Award

"Has everything I look for in a good medieval romance: a strong hero, an intelligent and caring heroine, a really unpleasant villain, and plenty of atmosphere. It also has a few unexpected twists and turns, which complement an excellent plot . . . the romance is pure gold." -All About Romance (Grade A / Desert Isle Keeper)
