* * *

She wanted just one naughty carriage ride...

Beth McConnel has a secret. Every afternoon, she escapes the drudgery of her family's shop and seduces wealthy gentlemen. One encounter is all Beth allows. She must leave them burning.

When she boldly seduces Grey Sexton, a powerful shipping magnate, Beth finds his ice-over-fire combination of ironclad self-control and sensual indulgence too tempting to resist. Surely, one or two more clandestine trysts wouldn't hurt?

But Grey Sexton demands more. His possessive determination to own her, body and soul, threatens to expose her erotic life. To give into his demands means losing her good name and her place in her brother's home...everything she holds dear. She must turn away, for poor girls with no family connections aren't allowed to trust their hearts to a gentleman.

Reader Advisory: Grey's Lady is an erotic / hot historical romance. It contains scenes of frequent, explicit sex and graphic sexual language. It contains a non-traditional romance plot and an unconventional heroine.

Two Lips Reviews honored Grey's Lady with the "Reviewer's Choice Award"

"...wickedly hot...a woman who is quietly determined to own her sexuality and make her own rules. With likeable characters, frank and occasionally bawdy dialogue, Ms. Blackthorne's book captured my attention from the first page...The scenes between Beth and Grey are not only smoking hot but full of verbal give and take." ~ Rose of Two Lips Reviews.

Miz Love and Crew Love Books rated Grey's Lady a "Top Pick"

"Grey Sexton...the most controlling, out-of-control, gorgeously outrageous package of masculine arrogance I ever wanted to bed. Pair him with beautiful Beth McConnell--a lady who is very much not a lady--and you have...sumptuous dynamite. Dark, light; virile, feminine; rich, not-so-rich; big, small. Smoldering...The sex scenes are indescribably arousing. Particularly a scene with a costly pearl necklace..a must-read. Cute, hot-as-hell sexy and lovely, eloquent prose to boot..." ~ Miz Z of Miz Love and Crew Love Books.

"This was an intriguing look into the sex lives of two people constrained by the era they were born in. ... Grey and Beth were perfect for one another but feared revealing themselves fully. ... A very emotional read that really had an edge in political influences that drove the characters." ~ Chris of Night Owl Reviews, Sept 21, 2011.
