Josiah Samuel Harry

IN THIS INCREDIBLE NEW BOOK, Josiah Samuel Harry engages in a conversation with individuals who get up every morning with renewed passion to WIN! He takes us on an intellectual, yet true-to-life journey through the world of "leveraging the best of who we are into winning opportunities." He asks the question: How do winners activate their ideas and goals into real-world impact? His answer is: Winning begins with a radical self-acceptance that we are phenomenal and have everything it takes to experience unparalleled success. Winning simply depends on setting our greatness in motion, meaning: (1) letting go of the average mentality; (2) moving out of our comfort zone; (3) and actualizing our value and creative capacity by engaging in active experimentation, risk-taking, trouble-shooting, failure analysis, problem solving, and venture creation. Straightforward and personal, This Book Is About Winning is a practical work that will simultaneously empower and educate.
