Lawless (Prophecy Child Series Book 1) Katie Epstein

Macey Jennings is an ex-demon slayer who earns her living between running a demon nightclub, and a business that bounty hunts non-humans.

Between running a busy bar, hunting demon out-laws, and staying under the radar of the slayer council, Macey is happy plodding on with her life until Harry Sinclair knocks on her door.

A Private Investigator who is clouded with his own troubles, Harry is on the case of a missing girl who was kidnapped not long after her sister was killed in mysterious circumstances. Now he has followed the trail to Macey's nightclub, and he can't quite fathom what she would be doing in such a place.

Upon first impressions, Harry thinks drugs are involved, until Macey chooses to throw him straight into the middle of her supernatural world. Now he has to trust the woman whose mere presence sends him into a frenzy, and let her help him with the case—unable to deny what he has seen with his own eyes.

The chemistry between them is undeniable, but the clock is ticking with a jealous ex-boyfriend thrown in for good measure. They need to find the girl in time, as an underlying threat forces their worlds to collide. Will they find the girl in time? Will their new found relationship survive? No one knows, for anything goes, in the lawless world of the demon.

Review Highlights:

"Simply fantastic!! I can't wait for the next book to come out. The author grabs you and pulls you in and you won't be able to put the book down!!"

"I enjoyed the excitement the author cleverly brought to the story and the book portrayed every element I would look for in a good read; love, excitement, pain and a good twist..."

 Note this book does contain scenes of a sexual nature, and some very questionable curse words depending on one's point of view **

~ Please note this book was professionally edited as of September 2014 ~
