How does one cross the infinite abyss of time? How does one ford the vast spans of galaxies deep, let alone how can an entire civilization ever hope to do the same? If the distance between stars has no solution for traversal other than thousands of years of straightforward voyage, how can one ever hope to lie witness to what exists on the other end? Enri Riatu and his companions come upon the answers to these questions all too fast and out of the blue as they awaken on the alien planet Anok, courtesy of the company TurTek, within a landscape unlike any they had ever seen before. Together, they must brace themselves for the unknowns this mysterious world has to offer and find out why they are even there. The only way for them to find out the truth is to accept their roles on a journey spanning immeasurable distances in both space and time, setting forth upon a new, unpredictable path into the future...
