This book is intended for a mature reading audience and isn't suitable for younger readers.

Sometimes a woman needs to start over again.

Curvy and independent Lena is recovering from a divorce, and for the last few months Lena has been trying to rearrange her life. Men have been the last thing on her mind. Until Ben Draper comes up to her apartment and helps her fix a few things. The handy man wants to do more than hang some drapes, he wants to extend an invitation into his bed.

Lena tries to deny the muscular man who keeps vying for her attention but she feels an inexplicable pull to the man. She wants it rough, and Ben aims to please but will his touch bring her the excitement she needs?

“It took everything I have not to come up here the other night and take you when I heard you moaning above me in the bathroom.” His hands dipped under her bra, grasping her breasts with a firmness that made her moan. He massaged her thick flesh and then gave her stiff nipples a squeeze.

“You heard that?” She froze for a moment, the flush of embarrassment filling her face. Of course he did. I should just hide now.

“I heard you moaning my name. You have no idea what it did to me, Lena. What you do to me.”
