Deadly Minutes Versus Precious Seconds: A Primer On Armed Church Security Bill Kumpe

The necessity of armed security is a fact of life in the Twenty-First Century church. This book is a primer for pastors, elders, deacons and board members considering armed security for their organization. It provides an introduction to topics such as concealed carry in the congregation, liability issues for armed church staff and security officers and the selection and training of an in-house security team. There is a special emphasis on Oklahoma laws and statutes including multiple appendices containing the current text of the laws in question. The author is a practicing attorney and a licensed, armed private investigator.
