She saved his son. Can she save him, too? Jamison Loane knew Alessia Rhyme like he had never known any other girl. As his best friend's little sister, Aly always was around, making it easy to fall in love with her. Yet, one careless comment on Jam's side put Aly in harm's way. To keep her safe, he gave up his happiness and stayed away from Alessia, even though she was all he ever wanted. Not that she or anyone knew that. So when Alessia left for college, giving her his infant son was the only solution he saw to save the boy from an abusive mother. Ten years later Aly can't get over loving Jam, especially not when his son reminds her every day of the father so far away. Having built a great life for Lesso and herself, she is cautiously happy. Or so she thought until Jam shows up, turning her life upside down with a dimpled smile. But Jam has changed. He has a dark secret that Aly is determined to uncover. Can Jam and Aly leave the past behind when their secrets threaten to tear them apart? Or will they never find true salvation? Warning: Due to adult situations and mild violence this book is intended for mature audiences only.
