Loving God with All Your Mind: Equipping the Community of Faith for Theological Thinking

Thomas R. Hawkins

Thomas Hawkins interprets some of the new brain science in ways that provide practical help for local church teachers and leaders. This easy-to-read book is filled with examples and stories that help congregational leaders think together from their variety of styles to make meaningful decisions about the organization and educational systems in their churches. Teachers and leaders will learn more about how to develop critical thinking skills and how to overcome emotional resistance as they lead groups in theological reflection.
