Imagine yourself as the main character of this interactive story, a girl who's excited to work on a science fair project with her friends. But when one partner disagrees with your ideas, and another leans on you a little too much, can you find the courage to speak up? Will you AND your friends leave the science fair with more confidence than before? With more than 20 different endings, you can enjoy this book again and again to see how different decisions change the story. This book comes with a limited-time access code to innerstarU.com--an interactive online world--plus, a secret access code for even more endings online.
