"A classic English mystery that paints a quiet, complex picture of what happens when evil invades the perfect home, the perfect couple, and the perfect life." - Perfect at Midnight

She never knew Lisa. But she is haunted by her death.

Yasmin Clark meets wealthy widower Daniel Ward and moves into his home in a small village, but it's not long since his wife died and emotions are still raw.

Richard Cohen thinks Lisa's death is suspicious and has started his own investigation. He wants Yasmin to help but can she trust him?

With hostility from Daniel's friends, events take a threatening turn for Yasmin and her friendship with Richard is ill-fated.

She finds herself pursuing a challenge which has evaded a police investigation. Is the personal cost too great?
