Robert Fratta and his beautiful wife, Farah, had been married for nine years and had three children before his bizarre sexual demands caused her to sue for divorce and custody of the children. Hoping to intimidate his wife into dropping the proceedings, Fratta hired an ex-con to brutally rape and torture her. Then, two years after the case began, Farah was shot to death. Fratta and two others were convicted of the bloody plot and sentenced to die by lethal injection. No Safe Place is the shocking story of a marriage that spiraled into the most forbidden acts a man and woman could commit -- of a husband who began a campaign of intimidation against his wife that ended in murder.
