You Think You Know Me; You Have No Idea Jesilyn Montgomery

The process of raising children can be a challenging yet rewarding experience. But what if you had a fragile foundation with little or no guidance? What if your entire life had been a crazy rollercoaster ride? Could you juggle the responsibility of a large family, college, unemployment and still find the strength to pick yourself up each day; even though life continues to spiral out of control?

This book is the author's memoir. She created it as a legacy for her children, and so that others facing the same situations can know that...

You Are Never alone!
